

Online Dating

Online dating can be a great way to meet people and there are lots of online dating apps that you can use.

It is important to remember some rules to keep you safe and help you to make good decisions.

When you are creating a dating profile, always tell the truth but ask someone to help you with setting up the profile – don't share too much personal information.

Never share your home address with someone you meet online.

If someone asks you to go on a date, ask to talk to them on a video call first.

If you do agree to go on a date, meet them in public and bring a friend, or let someone know where you are going to be.

Make sure that your phone is fully charged and that you have phone credit.

Make sure that you are being kind when talking to someone online and they are being kind and respectful to you too.

Someone who wants to go on a date with you should treat you with respect.

- They should not let make you feel pressure to meet them if you are not ready

- They should not ask you to do something that you do not want to do. It is always okay to say 'no'.

- They should not make you feel uncomfortable.

- They should not ask you for money.
